

Resources for Financial Management Education and Assistance

How to Spend Your Money, a compilation of college money management tips from, and for, college students. Quantities are available from the NYSHESC Advocate Unit. Please call (888) 215-0196.

College Student Budget. A master copy has been provided to you for your use. Please contact Gary Thurber at Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Central New York with any questions. 315/474/6026, Ext. 2137 or Email: gthurber@cccscny.org.

<http://www.jumpstartcoalition.org>. - Information clearinghouse for financial management education resources.

<http://www.freddiemac.com/knowyourscore.htm> – information on credit scoring targeted to college students

<http://www.mapping-your-future.org/features/dmtensteps.htm> – 10 Steps to Financial Fitness

<http://www.consumerjungle.org> - activities for students, parents, and teachers

<http://www.practicalmoneyskills.com/index.php> – free resource materials for students, teachers and parents. Phone 1-800-235-3580 for bulk copies of the Student Workbook Supplement

<http://www.newreaderspress.com/store/frameset.cfm>. Control Your Money, a workbook designed for students who want to learn more about managing their money. Produced by New Readers Press, a division of Pro Literacy (formerly Laubach Literacy).

<http://www.creditwhencreditisdue.com>. A 12-lesson self study nationally standardized credit education program.

<http://nysfaaa.org>. Resource information on paying for college and related topics for students, parents and school counselors.

<http://www.hesc.com>. Resource information on paying for college and related topics for students, parents and school counselors.

<http://www.credithelpny.org>. Private, non-profit NYS Banking Department licensed provider of financial counseling and debt repayment services. Financial counseling is free, and confidential. Staff is available for in-class credit and money management presentations. (800) 479-6026.